I spent the last 5 years working in the medical industry as a Chiropractor before a chance encounter turned me on to the world of Software Development. In my time as a Chiropractor I gained valuable experience working as a member of a team and coordinating with patients to solve unique, specialized problems. My willingness to learn, determination to become a productive employee, and flexible attitude make me a unique asset to any team. Though I specialize in medical tech, I have a passion for all things programming and my experience in the workforce has made me a versatile professional able to adapt to a variety of complicated situations.
